

Each point of a three-dimensional space is colored in one of two colors. Prove that there exists a triangle congruent to a given triangle whose vertices are all of one color.